

LIVING THE MISSION AWARDS

Living the Mission awards are given on an annual basis to outstanding Edgewood alumni. Our five categories are tailored to specific Dominican values and the awards demonstrate alumni dedication to serving others.

If you know of an outstanding alumnus/a who deserves recognition, we welcome your input! You can also read our award category descriptions below for more information, or view last year's recipients.

Living the Mission Award Categories

DOMINICAN AWARD FOR SERVICE TO HUMANITY

This award is given to an Edgewood High School alumnus/alumna who's life is distinguished by outstanding service to community and/or parish. Their work must reflect one or more of the Dominican values of Truth, Justice, Compassion, Partnership and Community.

FINE ARTS HALL OF FAME

This award is given to a graduate who participates in art, dance, drama, music, or writing while a student; is currently an arts professional, committed amateur, or educator; has made a significant contribution or shown high commitment to the fine arts; and has been in his or her field for at least 10 years. It can also go to a faculty member who has inspired love for fine arts in students, contributed significantly to a fine arts program or curriculum, and served as a role model for students and EHS community, or anyone who has demonstrated a long-term commitment to EHS fine arts through volunteerism, financial support, or enthusiastic promotion.

ALUMNI APPRECIATION AWARD

This award is given to a non-EHS alumnus/alumna whose record of service to EHS through volunteerism, support and other community service has been outstanding over the years. It is also given to any EHS employee who have 25-years of service to the school.

MAZZUCHELLI AWARD FOR SERVICE TO CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

This award is given to an Edgewood High School alumnus/alumna whose contributions through scholarship, financial assistance, volunteer service or employment have been valuable in the promotion and implementation of Christian education.

EHS ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME

This award honors former EHS athletes (usually at least ten years after high school), coaches/administrators, and friends of Edgewood Athletics who have contributed significantly to Crusader history by their performance, accomplishments, or contributions of time, talent, and/or treasure.
