

ENCORE, composed of parents, alumni and volunteers, hosts fundraisers and solicits financial support for fine arts programs at Edgewood. The areas that benefit include drama, music, visual arts, and creative writing. ENCORE supplements budgeted department, co-curricular and programs funds to enhance the arts experiences for Edgewood students. Previous support has gone towards guest presenters and residencies, improvements to the stage and equipment, new musical instruments and music library materials, replacement furnishings for the art room and introduction of additional color pages in The Wayfarer student literary magazine.

Membership in ENCORE is $1,000 annually and $10,000 lifetime, though gifts of any size in support of the fine arts are welcome and may be applied toward ENCORE's mission.
